Drugs worth £80k found by police

POLICE discovered a cannabis factory with up to 400 plants when they raided a house in Haverhill yesterday.

Four rooms in the four-bedroom house at Fritton Court were packed full of cannabis plants with a total estimated street value of between of £60,000 and £80,000.

Two men – a 21-year-old from Cambridge and a 34-year-old from London – were arrested and taken to Bury St Edmunds police station for questioning.

A sophisticated cannabis factory was found, with walls covered in foil, heating and lighting equipment and large plants.

The electricity supply was being taken straight from the mains, so the vast amount of electricity needed to cultivate the plants was not being paid for.

The landlord of the premises, who asked not to be named, said he had rented it out to two men in the first week in July who told him they worked for a Chinese restaurant. Neither he, nor any of the neighbours, had any idea what the property was being used for.

He said: "They were very plausible and we did all reasonable checks on them."

"They produced passports and I went to an address in Cambridge. We did not notice anything unusual about them."

Det Con Paul Gant, who led the early morning raid on the house, said: "We will be making house-to-house inquiries in the area and would appreciate any information from the public."

"It was a sophisticated operation and we are pleased to prevent these drugs from getting into the community."

"It is a significant interception of a criminal enterprise."

Anyone with information can call police on (01284) 774100 or Crime-stoppers on 0800 555111.

Youngsters impress at contest

YOUNG dancers from a Suffolk school have been making their mark after representing their county, then being invited to attend a professional dance school.

Dell's School of Dance from Haverhill was invited to a week-long national competition in Blackpool and asked to represent Suffolk in the annual competition run by the Chriska Stage School, based in Liverpool.

There were schools from across the UK and as far as the Isle of Man. Nine children from Dell's School of Dance attended the event, dancing ballet, tap, modern, musical comedy, Greek, acrobatics, disco, pairs, rock 'n' roll, duets and troupes.

Those taking part were Jun

Dale, 2, Katie Baldry, Tyrone Alleyne and Georgia Gibson, all 11, Janna Boulton and Zoe Evans, both 12, Nicole Alleyne and Abbey Jeffery, both 14, and Roxanne Jeffery, 15.

Dell's students delivered an outstanding performance, winning seven first places and 22 other medals, plus the top award for the most points made on the floor routines, outperforming all the other dance schools. The event organiser, Chris Booth, called the school "the little school that shone".

Teacher Katie Dell said: "I am so proud of the pupils at Dell's, they worked all year towards this competition, putting in three hours a week of hard work - they are very dedicated. They danced with pride, I am so proud of them all."

Two dancers from the school attended a summer school at the same professional dance school in Liverpool.

The week-long, invitation-only event was attended by Nicole Alleyne, 14, and Janna Boulton, 12, who studied ballet, tap, modern, salsa, lyrical, musical theatre and also performed a Michael Jackson tribute at the end of the week.

■ If anyone would like to join the school, they can go along to a free first lesson at the Salvation Army Hall in Chantry Road, Haverhill, on Monday evenings, 6-9 yrs from 5.15pm-6.10pm and 10-17 yrs from 6.15pm-7.45pm.

Man 'swung machete' in mobile phone row

A ROW over a mobile phone led to a terrified man being threatened with a machete.

The victim, Jason Rawlins, said he was terrified during the incident.

Sami M'Barki, 25, had turned up at an address in Leather Lane, Haverhill, following a row over a missing mobile phone SIM card, prosecutor Christopher Paxton said.

M'Barki, of Connaught Road, Haverhill, had denied charges of affray, making threats to kill and aggravated burglary at an earlier hearing, but failed to turn up for his trial at Ipswich Crown Court on Monday and efforts by police to locate him failed.

Judge John Devaux ruled that the trial should continue in his absence and M'Barki was found guilty of all charges by a jury.

Mr Paxton said M'Barki had burst into the Leather Lane address armed with a machete and demanded the return of a mobile phone SIM card which he had lost.

One of the people at the property watching television was Mr Rawlins, who said he was "petrified" as M'Barki swung a machete from hand to hand, smashed furniture and then held the weapon close to his face.

Mr Rawlins said he met M'Barki on many occasions when buying cannabis from him.

On some of those occasions M'Barki had borrowed Mr Rawlins' mobile phone, inserting his own SIM card. Mr Rawlins said he assumed that the calls being made by M'Barki were connected with drugs.

On the morning of October 6 last year, M'Barki had called at Mr Rawlins' home and appeared angry and agitated as he said he wanted his SIM card back.

Mr Rawlins said after he denied any knowledge of the SIM card, M'Barki threatened to return and shoot him with a Taser gun.

Hours later, when M'Barki and another man returned and started smashing items, Mr Rawlins said his partner Josie Bulmer had managed to flee from the property and alert the police.

When arrested, M'Barki denied that he knew Mr Rawlins or that he had been at his house or had made any threats.

Sentencing will take place at a later date, as further attempts are made to find M'Barki.

Society holds party for 160th birthday

SAFFRON Building Society held a party to celebrate its 160th birthday. The society was founded in 1849 and its branch in Queen Street, Haverhill, was one of those holding a party to celebrate the landmark anniversary. Customers enjoyed free birthday cake and refreshments, as well as candy floss, face painting and entertainment for the children and a free prize draw to win £160. The society supports local communities with volunteer work and charity donations and donated 25p for every person wearing one of its 160th birthday badges, as well as collecting money on the day, for the Sick Children's Trust. Michele Monck, head of marketing for the building society, said: "We see this event not only as a celebration, but a small thank you to the community that has supported us for the past 160 years. We are incredibly proud of our history and our standing in local communities around the East of England, and wished to mark this milestone with a fun, family occasion."

Positive sport-based social care project hits the golden standard

A POPULAR scheme which gets scores of youngsters taking part in sport and keeping out of trouble is celebrating after being recognised as a gold standard project.

Suffolk Positive Futures was recently assessed by an external agency called 'Substance', which assesses all 120 Positive Futures projects nationally. 'Substance' is a social research company specialist in the areas of sport and youth inclusion.

Each year, Suffolk Positive Futures submits an annual report detailing all the projects' activities, which it's working with and the outcomes achieved. The report is then assessed and is given a grade under the four headings of red, amber, green and gold.

Positive Futures is a sports-based, social inclusion project managed by Catch-22 on behalf of the Home Office.

The project runs weekly sports sessions across the county in order to engage with young people aged 10-19 to divert them away from crime and drug use and into education, employment and volunteering opportunities.

Paul Knight, project manager said: "We are delighted to have achieved a gold standard award. Hopefully this reflects the hard work that has gone into the project from all the full-time and seasonal staff and also agencies whom we work alongside."

"We have worked hard to offer a range of activities and programmes that would have maximum impact upon young people and for this impact to be demonstrated.

"Out of the 120 Positive Futures projects nationally, only 15 per cent were credited with a gold award, so it is something to be proud of."

"Hopefully we can maintain the high level set this year and go for gold again next year."

Haverhill was one of the towns where regular football and street dancing sessions were arranged and praised by the local police who attributed a drop in anti-social behaviour and criminal damage to the project.

Village pub holds third beer festival on holiday weekend

A BEER festival will take place at a picturesque village pub over the August Bank Holiday weekend.

The third annual beer festival will be held at The Half Moon, Belchamp St Paul, near Haverhill, from August 29 to 31.

There will be at least 30 different types of ale, cider and perry on sale and live entertainment will be provided by Robbie Gladwell and Steve Linton.

Regular visitors to the festival, which is held at the 17th century pub, can also collect this year's souvenir embossed pint glass.

Sporting skills schools

YOUNG people in Haverhill will have the chance to learn boxing, dancing and footballing skills at a new series of summer school classes.

Children aged 10 to 19 can take part in the sessions which will take place in the town in the last two weeks of August.

The Positive Futures sessions will be held at the Burton Centre, Abbeycroft Sports Centre and on the Chalkstone Estate and have been organised by Haverbury Housing Partnership. The association's head of housing Peter Lock said: "Havebury is once again delighted to sponsor these sporting activities for young people which are a great way to keep active and make new friends over the summer."

For more information about the sessions, visit www.havebury.com or contact Alan Ott on 07717 290573.

Brave Bianca is 'guardian angel'

Would-be doctor Bianca Ho has already had a taste of dealing with a casualty – at the tender age of 16 she came to the aid of a driver critically injured in a car accident.

Her quick-thinking and prompt action not only helped the victim but earned her a nomination in the Cambridge Building Society Young People of the Year (YOPEY) award.

The teenager, of Chapel Road, Weston Colville, is now in the running for a cash prize in the contest, with £2,000 up for grabs for young people who give to others.

Bianca was nominated for the award by Caroline Derbyshire, principal of Linton Village College, where Bianca was recently studying.

Bianca, dad Sidney, mum Tracy and 12-year-old sister Jenna were driving home just before 9pm on the May Day Bank Holiday. On the Balsham road, a car coming towards them swerved, hit the grass verge, straightened and then went into a ditch and finally hit a tree.

Bianca immediately phoned 999 and gave the ambulance service directions to the accident scene, before she went to help.

She said: "My dad was very concerned about possible dangers to the car, such as it exploding after the impact.

"My first-aid training told me to be very careful and not to put myself in danger. But having heard a cry for help my instincts just took over.

"I went to the car and opened the door behind the passenger's seat. The driver said he could not feel his legs. I held him so he did not slide or hurt himself any more. I told him I had rung the ambulance. He was shouting that he feared he would lose his leg. I kept talking and re-assuring him."

A woman in another car stopped and held the young man while Bianca rang his mother. Sidney waited at the side of the road for the ambulance to arrive.

Weeks later Bianca visited the 22-year-old driver, Nathan Richards, as he recovered at his home in Cambridge.

Bianca had learned first aid to be a lifeguard and now works part-time at Abbey Pools in Cambridge. She will start at Hills Road Sixth Form College in Cambridge in September.

She said: "I wanted to be a doctor beforehand but this incident has particularly inspired me to go into the medical profession."

Ms Derbyshire said: "What impressed me was Bianca's quick-thinking and maturity to take the initiative in helping the injured driver.

"We are very impressed and proud of her prompt and efficient action.

"Working with young people I know that most of them are fantastic but a few grab the headlines for all the wrong reasons. Bianca is a good role model."

Mr Richards, a refuse worker with Cambridge City Council, suffered two broken legs,

'Role model': Bianca Ho, who helped rescue a driver trapped after a crash in May. CP broken thighs and a broken hip in the accident which was caused after he swerved to avoid a deer that ran out in the road.

He had extensive damage to his right leg which needed three operations. It could be up to 18 months before he is walking properly again.

He said: "Bianca is a very brave girl. There's a lot of people who would not do what she did.

"After the accident my vision was blurred and I thought I was dying and seeing an angel. I have to say Bianca was my guardian angel."

The YOPEY awards were launched in Royston in 2005 by Tony Gearing, a former newspaper journalist and father-of-three, who was tired of the bad press young people received.

A lavish awards ceremony for the winners will be held at The Imperial War Museum Duxford in October.

■ To nominate someone for the award go to www.yopey.org or write to: Young People of the Year, PO Box 103, Hare Street, Ware, SG9 0XD, enclosing an SAE, for an entry form. Young people can nominate themselves.

The search is also on for Suffolk and Norfolk young people who give the younger generation a good name. They could win a slice of £4,000 in prize money being put up by businesses and police in the two counties to reward young people who are positive.

Go to www.yopey.org for more information.

Now loads more fun for everyone at park

A NEW play area was officially opened by a mayor – together with some of the youngsters who will use it.

Communities around the Castle Playing Fields in Haverhill have a new focal point, thanks to a successful bid of £50,000 to the Government's Play Builder scheme and a grant from St Edmundsbury Borough Council of £60,000.

The project, to replace an under-used play area with an improved design for children up to 12 years, was opened by Cllr Pat Warby, mayor of St Edmundsbury, assisted by local children.

The design was based on consultation with local schools and Parkway Residents' Association – its key feature is a 'castle', sculpted from trees.

As well as other natural features, such as grass mounds, planting and hedges, there is a zip wire, rope-climbing frame and an area for smaller children to play in. The new area is sited closer to the new pond.

Cllr Lynsey Alexander, cabinet member for culture and sport at St Edmundsbury Borough Council, said: "Providing opportunities for active outside play is important for the health and well-being of our young people, and I am delighted that this attractive scheme has gone ahead.

"I am also delighted that the local community were so closely involved in the design, as now we can deliver a truly exceptional play area that will be used and enjoyed by local children."

As well as providing funding, the council will clean and maintain the site and ensure its ongoing safety.

Local traders just champion

Sir, I write to champion our local traders. Recently we decided the time had come to replace the ageing appliances in our kitchen ... fridge/freezer, cooker, dishwasher and washing machine. Budget agreed upon, we made our way to M. J. Pipe in Queen Street, having bought from them in the past, we have always received excellent and friendly service. However, this time they surpassed even our expectations! We entered the shop at 9.40am, selected the items, all of which were in stock, paid for them and made our way home. By 12.15pm, all new appliances had been delivered and installed, old ones and every last scrap of packaging had been taken away. The whole process had taken 2 hours and 35 minutes. I do welcome the big retailers into the town, not least for the employment they will bring, but our local traders and stores have plenty to offer that the large businesses can't hope to achieve. We have also experienced great service from Chapmans and Taylors Animal Feeds and that has been because they are small and local.

Thanks for charity cash

Sir, With reference to the Marathon Hike in May, would you pass on, in your letters pages, thanks to all those helping, sponsoring and participating. The total of £1,030 raised has been acknowledged by East Anglian Children's Hospices (E.A.C.H.) and Action Duchenne. Also, thanks to those supporting the recent Picnic with Purpose with £150 being passed on to HIV/Aids Orphans in Swaziland via the Samaritan's Purse organisation.

Chance to chat with councillors

Sir, We are inviting residents to come and talk to their town councillors.

Part of being an effective town councillor is having a chance to talk to our residents and find out their concerns and problems. In order to do this, Karen Richardson and I will be available in the Arts Centre on Saturday between 10am and 12 noon. Please do drop in and see us and have a chat about anything that you might be worried or concerned about. We both look forward to meeting you.

Food gifts much appreciated

Sir, Re: Food Collection for the Foodbank.

I would like to say a big thank you to the readers of the Weekly News for their generous donations of food over the last few weeks, your kindness has been overwhelming. In particular, I would really like to say a heartfelt thank you to the anonymous couple who turned up on a Saturday lunch time at the Next Door Coffee Shop – just before closing time and dropped off approx 200kg of food, we were totally blown away by it! We are so grateful to all who have and continue to donate food to the foodbank project.

We often see and hear many sad stories while doing this work, people from within our community, but on the flipside, it is so heart warming and good to know that there are many folks within our community who do actually care. Thank you.

Henry Wilson

Portrait unveiled of long-serving Legion man

A PORTRAIT has been unveiled of a long-serving British Legion chairman, who has held the post for more than 55 years.

Fred Phillips MBE, 90, only relinquished the post of chairman of the Kedington and District branch of the Royal British Legion in May.

A reception was held at the Legion Hall in Haverhill Road, Kedington, to mark the end of his chairmanship and the Reverend Canon John Eley unveiled a photographic portrait of Mr Phillips.

Brian Tyrrell, branch secretary, said: "Fred was elected as chairman of the branch on November 3, 1953 and has served in the post continuously since that time. He has served the branch with great dedication and commitment."

Mr Phillips has also been awarded the Gold Badge by the Royal British Legion, National Life Membership and a National Certificate of Appreciation. All three awards are given in recognition of services to the Legion over the many years.

Mr Phillips was given his MBE for services to the community, which included those for the Royal British Legion. He has also served as a village correspondent for many local newspapers, including the Weekly News, for many years.

Close members of Mr Phillips' family and representatives of the branch and women's section joined the celebration at the hall, where the portrait was hung after the unveiling ceremony. Mr Phillips will continue to serve as president of the branch.

New stores set to open

TWO NEW stores will open in Haverhill next month creating more than 250 jobs in the town.

The Tesco store on the former Station Yard site will open on Monday, September 28 – more than a month earlier than originally planned – and a large Iceland store will open in the former Woolworths premises on Thursday, September 3, creating 29 jobs.

Applications flooded in for the 225 full and part-time posts at the new Tesco store, reaching 2,000 before the closing date.

A spokesman for Tesco said the number of applications was in line with what they had experienced when opening other new stores and not that unusual because of the shortage of jobs during the recession.

The company had been working with Job Centre Plus to recruit the best possible team for the store and had been impressed with the quality of applicants.

Originally it had been estimated that the store would open in November, but fine weather allowed workmen to get ahead of schedule with building work, so that this was brought forward to late October and then to September.

Iceland Foods will open its new store in the High Street at 9am on September 3, but a spokesman declined to say how many applications had been received for the 29 jobs created.

There will be a balloon arch, children's entertainment and staff giving out promotional leaflets on the opening day.

Nathan Houldsworth, area manager said: "We are delighted to be opening our new store in Haverhill. We are pleased to be able to contribute to employment in the local area.

"Our range of frozen, fresh and grocery food will add greatly to the shopping choice in Haverhill. We will also be providing free home delivery for customers who spend over £25."

Fabulous floral fixture

HAVERHILL Arts Centre was bursting at the seams with beautiful blooms as the local flower club staged its annual floral art competition.

It was the fifth event staged by Haverhill and District Flower Club, with around 50 entries on show on Saturday and Sunday.

The event has become a regular fixture on the diary of many local flower clubs and one lady even travelled from Luton to take part.

The judge officiating was Lionel Clark.

Valerie Phillips, club secretary, said entries were slightly down, but the event had still been a great success and attracted plenty of visitors.

She said: "We were very, very pleased with how it went.

Mrs Phillips had a very successful show herself, winning the prize for Best in Show, as well as the Audley End Cup for Best Use of Colour. Leslie Philpot from Baintree Flower Club was runner-up for Best in Show and Rhoma Holmes of Haverhill Flower Club won the Barbara Webb Cup for Best Use of Garden Plant Material.

Anyone interested in joining the flower club can contact Mrs Phillips on 07890 168944.

Baby care unit staff take a fund-raising leap of faith

BY JO DEEKS

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A TEAM of 17 brave doctors, nurses and friends from West Suffolk Hospital's Special Care Baby Unit will take a 15,000ft leap of faith next month when they complete a sponsored parachute jump in aid of the unit.

The group, whose ages range from 22 to 60 years old, will take to the skies on Tuesday, September 8 to complete the tandem jumps from an airfield in March.

Seven nurses and paediatric consultant Dr Ian Evans will take part, alongside friends and parents whose children have been cared for at the unit.

They hope to raise as much as they possibly can for the SCBU, which cares for babies who are born prematurely or need other specialist help.

Staff nurse Julia Day, who organised the jump and has worked in the SCBU for the past five years, said: "A lot of parents whose babies are cared for in the SCBU already help fund-raise for the unit."

"We decided to follow their example and raise money while also challenging ourselves to try something we've never done before."

"It has just grown and grown since we first started talking about it and all sorts of different people have now put their names down to take part.

"We've got a great mix, which includes our colleague Sue Sadley, who has wanted to do a parachute jump for some time and decided to fulfil that dream after turning 60."

"Everyone has their own very personal reasons for signing up, from the nurses and doctors who work in the unit, to the parents of some of the babies we have looked after."

"Some of us will be jumping in memory of babies we cared for over a long period of time and will be wearing T-shirts with their names on. It's another way for us to remember them."

"I think everyone is looking forward to it, although a few people are quite nervous about jumping – but are managing to keep their fears to themselves. We're all encouraging each other and want to raise as much money as we can."

The team has so far received more than £1,000 in pledges and are paying for their jumps themselves – which means all the money they raise will go straight to the unit. To donate, visit www.justgiving.com/scubury

Result! Wayne Blackman collects the keys to his new SEAT Ibiza Ecomotive.

CP

Welcome to Wayne's eco world!

WAYNE Blackman can look forward to slashing his fuel costs after winning a hyper-frugal new generation SEAT Ibiza Ecomotive car.

In a national competition run jointly by the Spanish car maker and the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency (DVLA), the site contractor from Hurdon was thrilled to scoop the £11,000 prize.

After collecting the keys to his new car from local dealer Cecil and Larter in Bury St Edmunds, Wayne admitted he's looking forward to fully exploiting his new car's economic benefits.

The 25-year-old said: "I wasn't aware of the Ibiza Ecomotive before I won the car, but since winning I've done my research and the figures are amazing."

"Having a car that's so economical will make a big difference to my monthly fuel bills."

The stylish supermini can travel up to an incredible 94.2 miles on one gallon of fuel and is exempt from road tax.

Wayne's win came courtesy of an online promotion to encourage motorists to renew their road tax online – a simple process that can be completed in less than four minutes on the DVLA's dedicated site – www.direct.gov.uk/taxdisc

Village hall to receive makeover

A VILLAGE HALL is to get a £30,000 makeover thanks in part to a £4,500 grant from Havebury's Community Investment Fund.

Hundon Village Hall's foyer and toilet facilities will be completely refurbished when work begins early next year.

It is expected that the project will take six weeks to complete and volunteers from the village will be lending a helping hand.

In addition to Havebury's grant, £8,000 has been received from St Edmundsbury Borough Council and an additional application has been made to the National Lottery Fund.

Lynda Burrows, village hall secretary, said: "It is 20 years since this part of the hall has been refurbished, so it is really in need of some attention. The venue is used for many clubs including keep fit, bowls, gardening, a history group and a nursery every weekday morning.

"Dances, weddings and parties are also held at weekends, so the work will benefit a huge number of people. We are very grateful to Havebury for its contribution towards our project."

Community Investment Group member and liaison officer for the project, Jane Chance, said: "Village halls are vital to maintaining our rural communities and provide much-needed meeting places and services to local people.

"Without the commitment from local volunteers and some investment, they would fall into disrepair and would eventually be financially unsustainable.

"The CIFG was pleased to support Hundon in their efforts to keep this well used facility."

Each year, local groups and individuals with ideas that will benefit their community are encouraged to apply to Havebury's Community Investment Fund, which has £50,000 available in small grants.

Since the fund was set up in 2002, a total of £415,222 has been awarded in grants to support 161 community projects.

This funding has also helped attract more than £224m in match funding.

Registered disabled mum of two found new freedom in Motability

In the driving seat: Debbie enjoys the freedom of the open road in her adapted van.

Pictures: Keith Jones 580466

'SOME people do look at you as if you shouldn't be allowed out," admits Debbie Carter, with a wry laugh. And I still get angry about it: some days I come home and blaspheme...

"I used to be a quiet little mouse who didn't want to upset anyone, but I speak up for myself now. I think you have to, to be honest. I'm my own person – and I want to live my own life."

A mum-of-two, Debbie has a happy family, a great job and a bulging social diary. She is also registered disabled.

Born with cerebral palsy, a neurological condition which affects both movement and co-ordination, Debbie uses a wheelchair. But the 52-year-old has always been determined her disability won't hold her back.

"We were on holiday recently and decided to visit a National Trust place," continues Debbie. "This woman came over and made the mistake of asking my husband 'Does she get out of the chair?'. That kind of thing is so annoying!"

BY ALICE RYAN

Email: weeklies@cambridge-news.co.uk

"I was brought up to believe that I could do whatever I wanted in life: my dad always said 'If you think you can do it, you can.'"

Estimates suggest one in every 400 children born in the UK have some kind of cerebral palsy. Caused by damage to the brain (which normally occurs prior, during or just after birth), the symptoms of the condition vary in severity.

In Debbie's case, the cerebral palsy affected both her arms and legs; she has struggled with walking all her life.

"I know I was a breach baby," says Debbie. "It was a home delivery and I know there were some problems. But it wasn't until I was eight or nine months old that my parents realised something was wrong; I wasn't moving around much."

Diagnosed with a congenital deformity in her hips, little Debbie spent the next 18 months with her hips set in a plaster cast.

Even after the treatment, she continued to have problems with her balance; referred to what was then the Spastic Society, aged three, she was found to have cerebral palsy.

Because her father was in the Navy, Debbie's family moved around a lot: aged four, she was living in Malta, where she attended a convent school. "One of my earliest memories is of one of the nuns sitting me on a chair in the middle of the playground so I didn't get knocked over," laughs Debbie.

"My balance wasn't very good and I was always covered in scrapes and bruises. I remember sitting there and watching all the other children running around... But I did everything else everyone else did, apart from PE."

Once back in England, Debbie was sent for regular physio. Then, aged just 13, she had the first of two major operations on her hip – and spent the ensuing summer back in plaster.

Academically very able, Debbie completed A-levels and then won a university place to study social science at Goldsmiths in London. "My parents were always very supportive," she says. "I'm the middle of three and they believed in all of us."

When Debbie was 17, their mum died of cancer. It was a terrible time – but Debbie says her dad was a real rock. “He was very strong,” she adds. “He died two years ago and I miss him such a lot.”

In her late teens Debbie found her freedom in the form of a specially-adapted car, courtesy of disability charity Motability. And then, on graduating, she took a job with The Law Society, where she met David, now her husband of more than 20 years.

Following a second hip op, at the age of 27, Debbie was on crutches when she and David first got together. When she fell pregnant with Ellie, their eldest, she had to use a wheelchair.

“I began to use it more and more,” Debbie explains. “I had a couple of really bad falls – on one occasion I put my head through the glass panel in the kitchen door. When you’ve got two small children you can’t afford to do that; it had got to the stage where I wasn’t safe.”

Ellie, now 20, and George, 16, were both born by Caesarean. “When they were very small it was easier,” smiles Debbie. “It was far more difficult for me when they started toddling! But they developed fantastic head control very early: most mothers pick their babies up with great care and hold their heads – I couldn’t do that.”

Debbie admits that, in the wake of both pregnancies, she battled serious post-natal depression. “It was particularly bad after George was born,” she explains. “He was seven weeks early; he weighed just over 5lbs.

“I suffered with the depression on and off for many years. You just don’t feel motivated to do anything; when you’re really depressed you want to stay in bed every day – you don’t have a forward outlook on the world...”

Debbie’s dark frame of mind was, she adds, compounded by her increasing immobility. By then reliant on a wheelchair, she was also reliant on other people to go anywhere or do anything: unable to get herself in and out of the car, she could no longer drive.

Then, thanks to technology, her mobility began to improve: first came an electric wheelchair, then a new Motability vehicle – a Chrysler van, adapted specially to suit Debbie’s needs (complete with an access ramp).

“It made such a difference to me,” she explains. “I was in my 40s, had two kids and a really interesting job, but I couldn’t even get from A to B without assistance.

“It might sound strange, but getting the van made me feel better about myself. It freed me to do so many things I couldn’t do before: take my son to football, go shopping, meet up with my girlfriends...”

Debbie says her mental health soon began to improve. And now she’s happier – and more fulfilled – than ever.

As editor of the magazine Training Journal, Debbie has a high-powered job, which involves everything from copy editing to organising conferences and undertaking research. The role includes quite a bit of travel; thanks to an Access to Work grant, a support worker comes with her.

“When I’m away from home I do need a bit more help,” explains Debbie (whose Little Downham house has been modified). “The other day a very close friend said, just in conversation, that she’d decided that when she reached the point where she couldn’t wash her own face or wipe her own bottom that was it, she’d want to be dead.

“I didn’t say anything, but I felt like saying there have been many times when I couldn’t do those things for myself – but I’ve never felt that was a reason to die.”

When she’s not working or busy being a mum, Debbie is studying to be a life coach. Part-way through a distance learning course, she says she was attracted to coaching “because it’s such a positive process: it’s about looking forward, not analysing the past”.

Having been through some dark and difficult times in her own life, and also found the light at the end of the tunnel, Debbie is keen to help other people – especially those with disabilities – lead happier lives.

“I’d like to help other people move forward,” she adds. “I know some people wouldn’t agree with me, but I consider myself very lucky: I know that with determination and hard work, and also with support, almost anything is possible.”

Record results for young dancers

A RECORD number of top marks were achieved by pupils at a ballet school whose members all passed their recent exams.

Alison Law, principal of the Ballet Shoe Workshop dance school, which meets in Hundon, was very proud of her pupils and handed over certificates at end-of-term presentation days for the exams taken this summer.

A total of 175 exams were taken by pupils aged three to 20 years, with all pupils passing, a record number attaining the top mark of Honours, with many getting more than 90 per cent in their results.

The exams were taken in Ballet, General Class, Freestyle and Dance Exercise.

At the presentation, the pupils performed their exam work for parents and then all received their awards.

Have you lost a big black moggie?

A POORLY pensioner, who has been feeding a stray cat since just before Christmas, is hoping to reunite it with its original owners or find it a new home.

Joyce Fry, 79, found the female cat, which is about eight years old, outside her home in Rowell Close, Haverhill.

The cat, which lives in the garden, is quite big, jet black and has grey and yellow eyes. The cat is very friendly and Mrs Fry believes it was someone's pet.

She said: "It is a lovely cat and I would love to keep it, but I am not able to because I am not in good health."

"It is a shame because I love her, but I worry if anything happened to me. She is very nervous of people and has quite a loud miaow."

Anyone who thinks the cat could belong to them or would like to offer it a home, can contact the Weekly News on (01440) 703891.

Police looking out for caring volunteer

POLICE are searching for a volunteer who can spare a few hours a week to help an existing volunteer with Downs Syndrome continue his role.

Suffolk Police require the volunteer at Haverhill Police Station as part of Haverhill Safer Neighbourhood Team, for a few hours on Friday afternoons to help Ian Cramsie, 26, who has been volunteering since June, with a support worker from Men-cap.

However the charity is no longer able to provide support, so Suffolk Police are looking to recruit another volunteer to support Ian in his duties, which include washing police vehicles, completing an inventory of vehicles' equipment, making refreshments and other duties such as sorting out the lost bikes shed and organising leaflets.

Volunteers (PSVs) have a unique role to play in Suffolk Constabulary. They add value, complement and support the work of officers and staff and help to forge closer links with communities.

The vacant role requires an enthusiastic person with good communication and listening skills. An ability to maintain confidentiality is most important.

Experience or knowledge of learning disabilities would be an advantage, but not a necessity.

The purpose of this role is to provide support to assist Ian to carry out his tasks at the Constabulary and not to do them for him.

If interested, contact Police Support Volunteer Co-ordinator Rachael Thacker by calling (01473) 613570 or email Rachael.Thacker@suffolk.pnn.police.uk

Work starts on respite home

A NEW respite care home for people with learning disabilities is being built as a £1.9 million project.

The home, at The Vinefields in Bury St Edmunds, will serve west Suffolk – including the Newmarket and Haverhill areas.

It will provide respite care for eight people in two self-contained blocks, with a third linking block providing day services.

The Suffolk County Council

project is being built to "green" principles, with plants growing on the roof and a woodchip boiler.

Cllr Colin Noble, the council's portfolio holder for adult and community services who also represents the Rowheath division which includes Lakenheath and villages near Newmarket, helped to "top out" the new building by laying a section of sedum roof.

He said: "The building and the service supplied within it will provide short breaks to adults with learning disabilities which will in turn give their family carers a break from their caring responsibilities.

"The building is domestic in scale and appearance with a 'holiday home' feel that anyone would aspire to visit for a short break."

The building is due to be completed by the end of the year.

Stately home picnics and screenings under the sky

REMEMBER when you went to the cinema during the summer holidays and your dad used to tell you that you should be outside enjoying the sunshine instead? Or was that just us?

Anyway, now you can enjoy the cinema and the outdoors, thanks to a new programme of al-fresco movie screenings at stately homes in the area.

The National Trust has teamed up with Sky, BAFTA and Screen East to bring a series of outdoor screenings to two of its properties this month, giving film fans the chance to enjoy al fresco dining with friends and family while watching some of cinema's brightest stars in action under the stars.

The programme kicks off at Wimpole Hall near Royston tomorrow with the period hoot Easy Virtue, Stephan Elliott's 2008 adaptation of Noel Coward's comedy, starring Jessica Biel,

Ben Barnes and Colin Firth, followed the next night by Keira Knightley and James McAvoy in the Oscar and BAFTA-winning Atonement. Next weekend, the action moves to Ickworth House near Bury St Edmunds, where audiences can enjoy more of Keira Knightley in The Duchess (Friday, August 28) or indulge in a spot of Abbamania with the record-breaking musical sensation Mamma Mia! (August 29). Two of the films have a connection to the trust properties: Some scenes for Easy Virtue were shot at Wimpole Hall, while Ickworth House was the family home of Bess Foster (Hayley Atwell), the eponymous heroine's best friend in The Duchess. Picnics are welcome at each event, and the properties' gardens will be open beyond normal opening hours for people to wander around before the films begin. The films will be projected from a giant cinema screen, taking pride of place in the grounds of these great houses and providing a sumptuous backdrop for visitors to enjoy the best of recent cinema. There will also be extra treats like behind-the-scenes introductions to the films and local archive footage. A selection of food and drink will also be available.

■ Easy Virtue, Friday, August 21; Atonement, Saturday, August 22, Wimpole Hall, Royston; The Duchess, Friday, August 28; Mamma Mia!, Saturday, August 29, Ickworth House, nr Bury St Edmunds. Events start at 8pm (films start 8.45pm). Tickets £12 adult, £8 children, £42 family. Contact: (01223) 206000 (Wimpole) or (01284) 769505 (Ickworth).

■ For two tickets for the price of one for any of the screenings quote: "Two-for-one stately screenings" when you phone to book.

Treats in store for the kids and teenagers

A REGULAR performer on the concert organ circuit in the UK, Tim Butterworth, will be at Haverhill Arts Centre on Tuesday at 7.30pm.

Garlic Theatre visits with Old Mother Hubbard next Thursday, August 27, at 2pm – an ideal first theatrical experience for children aged 3 - 6 years old.

Old Mother Hubbard went to the cupboard to fetch her poor dog a bone, but when she got there, the cupboard was bare ... or was it? A dotty old woman takes you on a nursery rhyme journey as she clatters about in her kitchen and her dancing dog sniffs out trouble in the most unlikely places. A spicy blend of slapstick and folk humour is on offer in this fresh and funny 45-minute adaptation, with well-crafted glove puppets, singing teapots and a feast of musical treats.

And now something for the teens, Raverhill on Friday, August 28, is an alcohol free event for young people aged 13 to 19 with DJs, VJs including body jam VJ set, live PA acts, body jam art, dancers, Olli + Elliott Beatboxers, glow circus, a video booth with lounge and cocktail bar. The event kicks off at 7.30pm, finishing at 10.30pm, tickets are a snip at £3.

The World Cinema Season film this week is Anything For Her (15), showing on Monday at 7.45pm. Lisa and Julien lead a happy, quiet existence until the police come to their home to arrest Lisa for murder. Convinced of her innocence, and having failed to secure her release through legal means, Julien decides to help her escape prison. This French film has English subtitles.

In Ice Age 3: Dawn of the Dinosaurs (U), the friends discover an underworld filled with dangerous dinosaurs. Showing on Tuesday at 2.30pm and Wednesday at 10.30am.

A single mum and her slacker sister find an unexpected way to turn their life around in Sunshine Cleaning (15), an off-beat comedy, showing on Wednesday at 7.45pm.

Shifting perspectives and steely hands

INTERNATIONALLY renowned artists Patrick Hughes and David Begbie are among the highlights of Byard Art's mixed summer exhibition.

Begbie, whose outsize hand Palm I is one of nine pieces on display at Fitzwilliam Museum's Sculpture Promenade, works sheets of steel mesh into figurative sculpture by hand. The clean simplicity of the lines in his Steelmesh figures belie the years of accumulated technical skill and respect for his medium.

Moonshine is a new 'multiple' landscape by Patrick Hughes. When viewed from the front it appears to be a flat surface image of Venice by moonlight, but soon reveals itself to be three-dimensional, so that the view changes and the perspective shifts, providing a powerful impression of depth and movement.

The show runs until August 31, open 9.30am-5.30pm Mon-Sat, 11am-4pm Sun/Bank Holiday Mon at Byard Art, King's Parade, Cambridge.

Comical capers in two Bard classics

THE world-renowned Shakespeare's Globe Theatre is leaving its Bankside home for two weeks this month to visit Cambridge for the very first time, bringing a double bill of two of Shakespeare's most-loved plays to entertain outdoor crowds in the sumptuous settings of the Master's Garden, Emmanuel College.

A small troupe of versatile actors will present "exuberant, energetic, stripped-down versions" of two of Shakespeare's most sparkling comedies – The Comedy of Errors and A Midsummer Night's Dream in this beautiful open air setting, reviving the old Globe principles of outdoor playing and Renaissance touring theatre.

A Renaissance spin on a Roman story by Plautus, The Comedy of Errors is a short and boisterous comedy which takes place during one manic day of misadventures. Take one pair of estranged twins (both called Antipholus) and one pair of twin servants (both called Dromio), keep them in ignorance of each other and throw them into a city with a reputation for sorcery and you have the chief ingredients for theatrical chaos.

With its enchanting mix of romance and magic, A Midsummer Night's Dream has a strong claim to being the most beloved of all Shakespeare's plays. Hermia loves Lysander and Helena loves Demetrius – but Demetrius is supposed to be marrying Hermia.

When the Duke of Athens tries to enforce the marriage, the lovers take refuge in the woods outside the city, and walk into the midst of a dispute between the king and queen of the fairies. So, too, does a group of amateur actors rehearsing a play. Between the angry fairies, the bumbling players and the dazed lovers, flies Puck armed with a potion capable of making anyone fall for the first person they set eyes upon – no matter how unsuitable the match ...

Comic double act: Miltos Yerolemos as Dromio and Ronan Rafferty as Antipholus in The Comedy of Errors.

Under the leadership of artistic director Dominic Dromgoole, Shakespeare's Globe theatre season plays in repertory from April to October annually, and has gained an international reputation for performance excellence.

Over the past two years the Globe has extended its work to reach audiences around the country with its touring productions, to widespread acclaim.

"The Globe was born out of a touring company culture, and that culture remained vital to it while it flourished," says Dromgoole. "We are delighted to be exploring again the tradition of taking Shakespeare into non-theatrical spaces."

■ The Comedy of Errors*, The Master's Garden, Emmanuel College, Cambridge, until Sunday; A Midsummer Night's Dream, next Tuesday to August 30 at 7.30pm (Thurs/Sat matinees 2.30pm, Sundays 3pm). Tickets £15 from (01223) 503333/ www.cambridgeartstheatre.com or on the door from one hour before the performance.

Best of the bulbs to brighten up spring

by Hannah Stephenson

No sooner have I returned from my summer holidays than I'm thinking about bulbs – what to plant, where to plant them and if there's anything new on offer.

Planting bulbs in the autumn creates an optimism and air of anticipation for spring, when everything bursts into life and many of the bulb specialists, mail order and online suppliers are offering new types and more choice than ever.

Here are just a few of the best bulbs for planting this autumn: ■ Narcissus 'William Park' – This giant single-flowered daffodil produces super-sized, 15-centimetre blooms. (Thompson & Morgan, 0844 248 5383, www.thompson-morgan.com)

■ Allium 'Carlito' – This beautiful new addition to the popular ornamental onion family produces densely packed heads of starry flowers in a subtle lilac hue, but is no less formidable than the favourite 'Globemaster'. It will grow to around 75cm and is ideal for dried flower arrangements when the colour has gone and just the seedheads remain. (Jacques Amand, 020 8420 7110, www.jacquesamand.com)

■ Camassia leichtlinii 'Pale Pink' – While most camassias are deep blue, these are a more subtle shade of pale pink and are just as hardy and tough as other leichtlinii, but broad-petalled in a soft baby pink. (Avon Bulbs, 01460 242 177, www.avonbulbs.co.uk)

■ Anemone 'Jerusalem Mixed' – Originating from Israel, these colourful, poppy-like blooms are produced on long stems from each corm. They are easy to grow and ideal for creating a stunning spring or early summer display in your garden – and your vases. (Thompson & Morgan, 0844 248 5383, www.thompson-morgan.com)

■ Crocus 'Vanguard' – This pretty lilac specimen bridges the gap between smaller-flowered, earlier crocuses and the March-flowering giants derived from C vernus. It needs good drainage and an open, sunny position to flower and looks good in drifts in grass mixed with short, early narcissi such as 'Jetfire'. (Avon Bulbs, 01460 242 177, www.avonbulbs.co.uk; Potters Nursery, 01472 851 714, www.pottersnursery.co.uk; Broadleigh Bulbs, 01823 286 231, www.broadleighbulbs.co.uk)

■ Hyacinth 'Prince of Love' – Double-flowered hyacinths are a rarity, but this dramatic and fragrant variety with its densely-packed flower spikes looks great in beds, borders or patio pots. (Thompson & Morgan, 0844 248 5383, www.thompson-morgan.com)

morgan.com)

■ Allium 'Silver Spring' – A recent introduction from Israel, the white lollipop flowers on 75cm stems are unique, with each floret sporting a distinctive deep-pink centre. It flowers in May and June and is widely available. (Walkers Bulbs, 01406 426 216, www.bulbs.co.uk; Jacques Amand, 020 8420 7110, www.jacquesamand.com; Broadleigh Bulbs 01823 286 231, www.broadleighbulbs.co.uk; Unwins - stockists call 028 8772 7500)

■ Narcissus 'Tall Bonair' – This impressive double daffodil grows to 35cm and has pale cream petals with a ruffled lemon-yellow centre, flowering in April. It's also an excellent cut flower. (Unwins - stockists call 028 8772 7500)

■ Tulipa clusiana 'Peppermint Stick' – Not new, but worth a try. This pint-sized tulip, which grows to just 25cm, produces dainty flowers in April with deep rosy-red outer petals just edged silvery white. The inner petals show a deep steel-blue base when open in the sun. (Avon Bulbs, 01460 242 177, www.avonbulbs.co.uk; Miniature Bulbs & Choice Bulbs, 01423 542 819, miniaturebulbs.co.uk; Gee Tee Bulb Company, 01205 260 412, www.gee-tee.co.uk)

■ Hyacinth 'Garden Masquerade': This richly-scented variety produces deep-purple flowers which make a real statement in patio containers in spring. (Unwins - stockists call 028 8772 7500)

BEST OF THE BUNCH

– Echinacea

It's not only medicinal but the coneflower, which is closely related to the rudbeckia, looks great too.

It brightens up beds and borders with its daisy-like flowers in shades of purple, pink and white, with contrasting coloured central cones.

These tall perennials from dry prairies and open woodland look fantastic in the late summer border, as the central cone of the flower stands proud of its petals.

The flowers last for around two months and also make great cut flowers.

They make good companions for other late-flowering perennials including rudbeckias and sedums, while the seedheads also look good in the winter.

Its coneflowers are also pollen-rich, so will attract plenty of bees and butterflies.

They need deep, fertile, well-drained soil with added organic matter and do best in full sun.

When the flowers fade, cut the stems back to encourage more blooms.

Clumps can be divided in spring or autumn, and root cuttings taken in late autumn.

Good varieties include E Purpurea 'Magnus', which grows to 1.5 metres high and produces whopping 18cm deep-pink flowers from midsummer to early autumn. E purpurea 'Green Edge' produces creamy white flower-heads with a green central cone.

SIMPLY amazing, these top size bulbs produce huge stems with luxuriant foliage throughout summer, topped with masses of fragrant trumpet blooms. Over the years many off-shoots are produced from a single bulb, taking on a shrub-like appearance and will reach over two metres tall over time.

Mortgage broker launches product

COUNTRYWIDE Mortgage Services, the UK's largest mortgage broker, has launched an exclusive mortgage product, designed with first-time buyers in mind. It is available through Abbotts.

At a time when many mortgage customers require a 20 or 30 per cent deposit, Countrywide has unveiled a mortgage product that requires only 10 per cent deposit in the market.

The five-year exclusive mortgage product has a 90 per cent loan to value (LTV) available for first-time buyers struggling to raise a deposit.

The news comes as Countrywide Mortgage Services reveals the popularity of longer-term fixed mortgage deals, as speculation over future interest rates rises.

In June, six of Countrywide's top 10 mortgages sold were three to five-year fixed rate deals – a strong indicator that longer-term fixed products are in most demand.

Philip Macdonald, managing director of Abbotts, says: "We're pleased to see Countrywide launch innovative mortgage products that reflect what our customers want. We have a team of professional mortgage consultants ready to talk about exclusive products you won't find elsewhere on the high street."

Unlike many mortgage products, this month's exclusive deal has no arrangement fee and includes a £500 cash-back incentive, which significantly reduces the cost of moving. The cash-back offer is available for a limited time period and provides an opportunity for customers to save, furnish their new home or settle other costs in the home moving process.

Manoj Patel, financial services manager, says: "Our advice is to move quickly as the best mortgage products are often available for limited periods."

Abbotts has offices in High Street, Haverhill.

For further information, call into the branch or visit www.abbotts.co.uk.

Sell your property the CXG way...

Why sell the traditional way?

Get Estate Agents to value it and put it on the market.

Show people around the property
(mostly "nosy parkers" & sightseers).

If no offers received after 2 or 3 months, reduce price.

Show more people around.

Eventually accept an offer at between 5 & 10% off the advertised price.

Hope the sale doesn't fall through (over 30% of sales don't reach completion).

Once price agreed, wait a further 3 months for sale to complete.

Work out how many £000s it has cost you in reducing the price, making mortgage payments, paying Estate Agents fees and legal fees since you started the process (on average, 7 months ago...)

The simple alternative

- Pay no Estate Agent's fees
- Pay no Legal fees
- No further mortgage payments
- Have cash within days (Instead of months)

Model release

POWER, luxury, style and value – Harley-Davidson enthusiasts can expect much more from the four new motorcycle models due to be unveiled by Black Bear Harley-Davidson in Newmarket this month.

The legendary American Motor Company has combined tradition with technology to create the latest additions to its current line-up, which is sure to impress motorcycle riders throughout Cambridgeshire.

The new models, on display in the Black Bear Lane dealership from August 28, include the Electra Glide Ultra Limited motorcycle. Described as the new king of the Harley-Davidson Touring line, it offers the performance upgrade of a Twin Cam 10 engine and features standard equipment items previously offered only as accessories on regular-production Harley-Davidson Touring models.

Other highlights include the Dyna Wide Glide, which returns as an all-new Dyna model with old-school chopper style. The new Fat Boy Special motorcycle in satin chrome and denim black is a darker, lower version of previous fat-tan models.

Also new for 2010 is the latest incarnation of the XR1200 – the all-new XR1200X. Introduced to run alongside the existing XR1200, the updated styling of the new model creates an aggressive presence, and riders can expect an enhanced performance and firmer handling on the road.

Harley-Davidson Custom Vehicle Operation (CVO), masters of shimmering chrome and bold paint, also offers four limited-production models for 2010. The CVO Softail Convertible is a versatile urban touring motorcycle, while the CVO Street Glide is a high-performance bagger. The CVO Ultra Classic Electra Glide and CVO Fat Bob models are refreshed for 2010 with new paint schemes and styling details.

"The new Harley-Davidson motorcycles epitomise the brand's enthusiasm for motorcycling," says Black Bear Harley-Davidson owner Nigel Darken. "We may all be living and working in a challenging environment these days, but our passion for creating and riding great bikes will never change."

For a closer view of the new Harley-Davidson motorcycles and to book a test ride, please visit Black Bear Harley-Davidson at the Black Bear Lane dealership, go to www.blackbear.co.uk or call (01638) 664455.

The Soul's safety ratings – with scores of 87 per cent for adult occupant protection, 86 per cent for child protection and 86 per cent for safety assist equipment – place the Kia among the safest B-segment sized family cars.

Every Soul sold in the UK is equipped as standard with dual front airbags, front side and full-length curtain airbags, height-adjustable front seatbelts with pretensioners and belt load-limiters, plus three 3-point seat belts for rear seat occupants. End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF)

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved
Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A
CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility.

We pay up to £100

» Golf: It's a family double at Haverhill as Andrew's open win follows dad Eamonn's triumph in seniors event

Well done: Club captain Dennis Harkness presents the F Johnson Cup to Andrew Bareham. CP

Final bound: Haverhill's Parks Trophy Squad after beating Stowmarket in their semi-final. CP

Title a Bare necessity

ANDREW Bareham successfully defended his club championship title at Couplars Road to complete a family double.

He came out top in the 36-hole competition – which was combined with the Spencer Tatum Cup for players with handicaps from 10-18 – to follow up his father Eamonn's victory in the seniors' championship.

However, it was a close-run thing for Bareham jnr. His rounds of 75 and 76 put him on 151, just one more than in-form junior Jack Warwick, winner of the R Brown Cup earlier this month, who was a shot further back after firing 77 and 75.

Andy Fish was another shot behind after rounds of 77 and 76 while an impressive 74 in his second round took Marcus MacNamara to a total of 160 and victory in the Spencer Tatum Cup. Another Haverhill junior, Harvey Bavester, was runner-up on 164 after firing 85 and 79.

■ Haverhill's seniors are through to the final of the Parks Trophy – the Suffolk inter-club pairs matchplay event – for the first time.

They rallied strongly in the latter stages to beat Stowmarket by three holes at the Bury club and will now face Ipswich (Purdis Heath) at Diss in the final.

Results: G Scott and E Bareham 4 up v N Clark and T Collett, D Harkness and C Briggs 3 up v G Sparling and R Osborne, J Walker and R Sharp 5 up v K Rooney and J Gilham and G Price and E Kiddle 4 down v R West and R Green.

To complete a successful spell for the seniors, they beat Felixstowe 5-3 at home.

■ Fifty-six pairs turned up at Haverhill for the club's senior mixed open, Alan Ambrose (Gog Magog, Cambridge) and Mike Seaver (Gosfield) winning with an impressive 44pts. The Gosfield pairing of C Wash and B Gault were next best on 43pts with F Smith (Haverhill) and K Foster (Colne Valley) third on 42.

■ Sue Carr, Wayne Penman and Peter Mercer won the Melford Cup, a mixed team event, with a combined score of 94 points. Catie Heathfield, Andy Fish and John Condon were second with 86 ahead of Lyn Fish, Graham Kennedy and Trevor Broomfield, who totalled 84.

■ Lewis Whiting had another good round at the Junior Open at Ipswich (Purdis Heath), scoring 38pts. His handicap has now been cut to 24.

Just wild about Harry...

HARRY Randall scored 102 net out for Weston Colville, but his team could only draw with Bluntisham in the Tucker Gardner Cambs and Hunts Premier League, Division Two. Trevor Westley chipped in with 47 as Colville posted 213 for 7 from their overs.

But despite Weston skipper Adie Westley taking 4 for 14, Jon Collen's 49 helped Bluntisham hold on for a draw, with their innings closing on 140 for 8.

Antony Bamford had a brilliant day, striking a century and bagging four wickets in Doddington's 93-run success at home to Horseheath in the CCA Senior League, Division One. The former skipper hit 17 boundaries en route to an unbeaten 105 as the hosts posted 223 for 6. Steve Fox, Mick Ketteridge and Gary Ellis all claimed two victims.

Openers Dan Goldsmith (35) and Ketteridge (47) gave Horseheath a solid start, but the introduction of Bamford (4 for 35) and Brahmhatt (4 for 27) caused their downfall and they were all out for 130.

Pleasant day for the magnificent HAVO sevens

MOUNT Pleasant won the HAVO Shield seven-a-side, the final event in the Haverhill Summer Football Festival.

Teams from across the area battled it out on the Astroturf at the Leisure Centre to raise funds for HAVO (Haverhill Association of Voluntary Organisations).

Mount Pleasant qualified as runners-up from their group and then beat their older reserve team, winners of the other pool, in the semi-final.

New player-manager Gavin Taylor, Danny Hill, and Jack Lumm impressed against Dave Efford's well-organised veterans.

The other semi was a hard-fought physical affair, with Suffolk Punch, runners-up in the 11-a-side festival the previous week, beating Club Bell thanks to the efforts of Terry Eley and James Pagram.

However, their hopes of getting their hands on the top prize came unstuck against the Mount Pleasant side.

After the shield was presented by Coun Les Ager, Mick Smith, the chairman of HAVO, thanked Wood 'n' Stuff for creating the HAVO Shield, Abbeycroft Leisure, and in particular Warren Smyth and Laura Flowers, for allowing the tournament at the Leisure Centre, the referees, Chris Emmerson and Liam Plumridge for organising the event.

Plumridge said: "It has been a good event for its first year. We have a platform to build on, and hope that next year the whole town will join us in really doing something special."

Showing Respect: The West Wrating and Island Boys skippers exchange pennants before their match. CP

WRATING SHOW THEIR RESPECT

West Wrating Youth 1 Island Boys 6

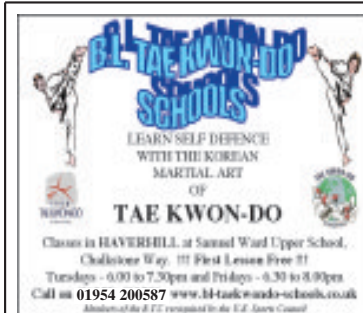

WEST Wrating staged their annual match against Canvey Island Boys at Bull Lane, an ideal pre-season clash between teams who both topped their respective divisions in Cambridgeshire and Essex.

And as Wrating have signed up to the Respect programme, representatives from Cambs FA were there to endorse the club's approach.

However, the match – sponsored by James Sherry and JSMC Ltd, who provide support to both teams – ended in a 6-1 defeat for Wrating. The Canvey keeper was named their man of the match for a series of good saves – only Lambert's blistering drive got past him – while Payne got the vote for Wrating. Castle Camps 1 Withersfield 7 CHARLIE Eilam scored a hat-trick as Withersfield won the battle of two sides facing their first season of 11-a-side football who both also played under the Grampian Gunners banner. Castle Camps took the lead after a frenetic opening but Jack Ferguson equalised and further goals followed from Cameron Kidd (2) and Mitchell Forshaw.

Dellar's left short in a derby stroll

ADAM Dellar was one run short of a deserved century when Haverhill survived a scare and eased past the target set by Mildenhall II in their Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship Division Two derby. Mildenhall, buoyed by a couple of decent wins, weathered some early setbacks thanks to a 78-run partnership between skipper Andy Squire (49) and Martin Taylor (32). With Adam Trett's 22 stiffening the middle order they reached 174 for 9. That score was made to look daunting as Haverhill plunged to 12 for 3. But Dellar (99 not out) and Simon Youngs (57 not out) dug them out of a hole in a 164-run partnership that sealed a seven-wicket win. Haverhill are at Brightlingsea on Saturday.

Sawston's crown

SAWSTON secured the Adams Harrison Midweek League title by crushing Abington in their must-win final game. Batting first Sawston racked up 164 for 8 with Simon Potger hitting 43, Ben Benson 34 and Glenn Goosen 33. Abington never really threatened and, in fading light against good bowling, subsided to 56.

>> Football: FA Cup, Extra Preliminary Round

Ouch: Haverhill's Danny Shipton feels the full force of a challenge by Godmanchester's Paul Bass in their first clash on Saturday. Bass scored the only goal of the tie at Hamlet Croft on Tuesday.

Rovers KO'd by a Bass curler

PAUL Bass claimed the only goal of the game as Godmanchester sprung an upset on Tuesday by knocking out Haverhill at the second time of asking.

The visitors, from the Ridgeons League's First Division, had the better of the first half and led at the break thanks to Bass sending a curling shot past Matt Morrison. They could have been further in front, but Jon Hall's header was saved by the goalkeeper.

Haverhill, from the Premier Division, were more of a threat after the break and Jamie Challis saw his chip beat Tim Trebes and strike the woodwork, before Richard Heller was thwarted by the shot-stopper.

And the hosts were inches away from forcing extra time right at the death when Godmanchester's Chris Hyem sent a skewed clearance just past the post.

The replay came about after a tight goalless tie at Godmanchester on Saturday.

Rovers were out of sorts for much of the game, although Stuart Wardley went closest to breaking the deadlock when Trebes tipped over his stinging effort midway through the second period.

■ Haverhill return to league action on Saturday at King's Lynn reserves on Saturday before a home clash against Mildenhall on Tuesday.

Bottens look to be tops again

STEVE BOTTEN and Liam Botten will be aiming for a double defence of their titles at the English Bowling Federation Championships in Skegness next week.

The Haverhill father-and-son duo won the men's pairs and the mixed rinks with Margaret Thompson last year, the Grampian bowler joining them again in their bid to retain that crown.

The Bottens launch their men's pairs bid on Tuesday with a first round showdown against Norfolk's C Blake and I Wones before linking up with Thompson for the opening round of the mixed rinks against S Wade, G Chapple and C Searson of Lincolnshire the same day.

Liam Botten could also be in line for an unprecedented quadruple if everything goes to plan.

He takes on Humberside's F Boatman in the men's under-25 singles on August 27 before teaming up with Sudbury bowler Aaron Phillips for a crack at the under-25 open pairs. They face a quarter-final against either B Wilson and A Caress of Lincs or Cleveland's C Parnell and S Honeymann.

Thompson will have her own hat-trick in mind as she also goes in the first round of the women's champion of champions against M Dykes of Humberside on Tuesday before joining clubmate Gill Bush for the women's pairs the same day where they will take on Nottinghamshire duo S Maguire and R Lewis.
